B62 BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY
HONEY RUM 40% Alc. by Vol. 80 PROOF 750 ML

Pine Tavern Distillery is New Jersey's first farm distillery and Salem County's first distillery since prohibition. Established in 2015, this family-owned business is located in the small town of Monroeville, NJ.

The bottle's label depicts a representation of the battleship underscored with 19 stars that represent the awards she earned, the most in the history of our country. The white background represents the dress whites worn by her sailors. And the honey is a tribute to the Seabees, the US Navy Construction Battalion whose logo is a Honeybee.

A portion from the sale of every bottle sold will be donated to the Home Port Alliance for the USS Battleship New Jersey, Inc., the organization responsible for the maintenance of the Battleship and museum.
