

Team Kramer,

Click the link for some exciting news brought to you by a special guest star from the hit TV series, The Office: <https://vimeo.com/933758493?share=copy>

That's right, we are taking our own spin on the "Dundies" with the first Kramer Beverage "Fundies" Awards during our next round of Fundamentals starting Monday, April 15th.

Each week, I will send out two Fundamental videos collected from the archives to face-off head-to-head. In the end, we will have a final match-up and the winner will receive the ultimate "Fundies" Award for the best Fundamental video of ALL time! But it's up to YOU to vote each week for this campaign to be successful.

Get ready to watch you or your favorite co-workers compete each week and possibly be crowned the winner. Cheers!
